

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Books of the Bible Lesson 7

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: THE GOSPELS

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

If the Bible was a movie, the Gospels would be that pivotal scene where everything changes. You know the scene, it's in almost every movie. Things are going well for the hero, but then suddenly, everything falls apart. It looks like everything is hopeless and the villain has won. But then the unexpected happens. The hero returns, stronger than before and good triumphs in the end! That is exactly what we see in the Gospels. Jesus' life changed the course of history and gave every single person a chance to escape the punishment that our sins deserve. John 10:7-18, The Good Shepherd

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Ask your kids if they can remember the gospels and teach you the hand motions: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What books are called the gospels?
- What story do the gospels tell?
- What did Jesus do to save us from sin?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him."

- Proverbs 30:5 NIV

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Every week, practice the books of the Bible with your kids. Review the hand motions we're teaching them so they can commit these books to memory.
