

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Books of the Bible Lesson 12

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: ALL THE BOOKS IN THE GOOD BOOK

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

This final passage reminds us that ALL Scripture is from God and is useful to help us as we live our lives. Now that you've memorized all 66 books, don't let this be the end of your study of the Bible. Instead look at your knowledge of the Bible books as a roadmap to guide you for the rest of your life whenever you study the Bible. When you or a friend has a question about Jesus you can turn to the Gospels. When you want to know how to live wisely, spend some time in Proverbs. When you have questions about what Heaven is like you can turn to Revelation. God's perfect Words have an answer for every question and challenge you will face in life. 2 Timothy 3:14-17

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Ask your kids if they can remember the names and hand motions for all the books of the Bible. Then see if you can recite them in order for them!

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- How many books are in the Bible, Old and New Testament?
- What big story do these books tell?
- Why are all of these books important?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him."

- Proverbs 30:5 NIV

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know: Review the books of the Bible and their hand motions with them this week. Then set a reminder on your phone to quiz them again in a few weeks.

Encourage them to keep practicing so they will remember all the books and their order.
