

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Books of the Bible Lesson 11

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: THE LAST BOOK

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

The next 12 books of the New Testament are also letters. Some are written by Paul to specific friends in the church and some are written by other leaders in the early church. The book of Hebrews is written to the Jews who had become believers in Jesus. Even though we don't know for sure who wrote this letter, we find some very powerful and encouraging words for all believers in Hebrews chapter 11 and 12. These passages remind us that all through history, people have believed in God even when life was hard because of the great promise of eternal life. Hebrews 11:1-9, 11:32-34, and 12:1-3

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Ask your kids if they can remember the names and hand motions for all the books of the New Testament.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Who wrote Revelation?
- What is Revelation about?
- Why is this strange book encouraging for people who love Jesus?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him."

- Proverbs 30:5 NIV

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Every week practice the books of the Bible with your kids. Review the hand motions we're teaching them so they can commit these books to memory.
